II. PURPOSE OF THE EXHIBITION

The exhibition aims to present artistic diversity, which is also a barometer of our reality. The review is open. It is addressed to all artists regardless of age, artistic achievements, form of artistic expression and creation technique. The presentation of works and direct contact with contemporary art, which will be presented in a historical setting, is to be a fascinating personal experience for both recipients and artists through participation in this event.

With this project, we want to reach the local community, which often does not have the opportunity to experience real art - in this case, visual arts. This is also one of the factors positively influencing the integration process of the inhabitants of this area, because with this project we are creating new traditions that are connected with the history of our region.
